for Speeding

L. Mayard Nerlan of Burley, Idaho, to swing a large real estate transaction for two prominent Ogden people, was found guilty in the city court this morning. He was sentenced by Judge D. R. Roberts to five days in the city lall, without the alternative of a fine. Nerlan, it is alleged, was speeding between North Ogden and the city limits about 1 o'clock this morning. Deputy Sheriff Dick Wootton and Chauffeur Bert Crites stopped him. Wootton testified that the average speed of the sheriff's car in pursuing Nerlan was 56 miles per hour, with 45 miles as the lowest speed and 65 as the highest speed attained.

Nerlan pleaded guilty.
He said he was trailing another car to inform the driver that sparks were flying from the brake band.

Wootton said the car Nerlan was trailing was at least a mile ahead when Nerlan started speeding.

Nerlan appeared staggered by the sentence and intimated that he would appeal the case.

County Attorney Joseph B. Bates prosecuted the case.

Mary Thurman' The name spells pulchritude. In the Mack Sennett comedy days of this charming actress she received innumerable tributes for her beauty and ability, but until now she had really never had the opportunity to display her prowess as a dramatic actress. But she achieves wonderful results in her simple "gingham gown" as a maiden of the desert country, sweet and demure loving and faithful.

This is William S. Hart's latest starring vehicle, "Sand" a Paramount Arteraft picture, directed by Lambert Hillyer, which is now at the Alhambra theatre.

Hillyer, which is now at the Amain-bra theatre Mr. Hart has the role of Dan Kur-sallreading cowpuncher. He rile, railroading compuncher. He breaks up a gang of bandits and wins his lady love despite dire handicaps. And the thrills are plentiful, even as love tempers the tragic moments and holds the interest of the audience—since all the world loves a lover.

Miss Thurman has an exquisite.

Miss Thurman has an exquisite profile. In some of the closeup views she evidences the possession of almost classical beauty. She acts with restraint and feeling, another evidence that comedy training far from being a handicap is a good school for the serious drama. A sense of human is a wonderful thing and it serves to modify the efforts of the dramatic actor or actress who possesses it.
